Bills for Incorporation Follow the Watts Liquor Law.

BIG FIGHT IN THE HOUSE

Mr. Watts, Who Was a Supporter of the irst Bill of This Character, Now Says He Has Changed His " and is Opposed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., March 6.—One the most notable fights on the floor House last night was over the palsage of one of the numerous bills pending to incorporate small towns to aviod compelling the removal or closing down distilleries under the operation of the Watts bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of whiskey in country districts. The fight against these incorpotions is led by Mr. Watts, who, however, the House the passage of the first bill Williams, this bill having been already ratified. In discussing the situamind about the town of Williams, and was now convinced it ought not to have been incorporated. He declared it would be a shame and a disgrace to me State been incorporated. It declared it would be a shame and a disgrace to see State and the Demoratic party to inforporate these whiskey stills and call the towns. This town of Shore is large esough for a dumping ground for all the flistilleries in Yndkin county. "I will chaust all parliamentary tactics possible," declared Mr. Watts, "to defeat these bills." Mr. Murphy replied: "In regard to the threat made by the gentleman from Iredell I desire to say that I am perhaps well versed in parliamentary tactics as he is, and it may be that other important legislation pending here may find some trouble in getting through."

The bill passed, 51 for 43. The probability is that a number of others will pass unless the calegdar is manipulated so as to hold them back until too late to others.

pass unless the calegdar is manipulated so as to hold them back until too late to act on them. It seems uncertain when the Legislature will adjourn. Most probably, however, on Tuesday or Wednesday. A resolution is pending in the Senate to adjourn to-morrow at midnight, but it will hardly pass. Much important legislation is yet to be enacted to round up the work of the Assembly.

The Wilsch Sanatorium Company, of Wilson, N. C., was chartered by the Secretary of State this morning, the capital stock being $24,000. The purpose of the company is to establish and maintain a sanatorium at No. 219 East Nash Street, Wilson. The incorporators are Dr. C. E. Moore, Dr. Albert Anderson and Dr. E. T. Dickerson, all of Wilson, The Vainterville Manufacturing Company, of Winterville, Pitt county, was chartered to make wagons and various agricultural implements, the capital being $30,000. The incorporators are W. J. House, L. L. Kittell, A. D. Cox, J. R. Cooper and E. A. Cooper.

The Clerks' Unitar of Raleigh, heid their second anniversary celebration in Pythian Hall to-bight. A sumptuous banquat and addresses by a number of prominent citizens were features of the occasion, notable speakers being Sherwood Higgs, one of the largest general merchants in the city; S. W. Whiting, of Whiting Brothers, citothers and furnishers, and N. B. Broughton.

At a meeting of the members of the Raleigh bar to-dight resolutions of respect in memory of the late Joseph B. Batchelor were adopted and a number of verbal tributes padd the deceased by Raleigh lawyers. Major Batchelor was at one time Atorney-General of North Carolina, and was for many years one of the most priminent lawyers of the Blate and recognized as one of the purest and best men of the Commonwealth.

The Senate has passed the White bill on its final roading, renewing or re-enacting the law appropriating 220,000 for the public school during the next two years to bring up the school terms to the four months minimum limit. The most notable change in the law is a clause providing that in the event the second $100,000 is not sufficient to bring up the terms the State over to that length then the distribution shall be proruted of Education shall deem most rata or in such manner as the State Board of Education shall deem mos

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., March 0.—Last night about 8 o'clock the Brown furniture factory was discovered to be on fire, and in a little more than an hour fire, and in a little more than an hour the building and contents, including machinery, was destroyed. The fire originated in the veneering room, and is thought to have been caused by the plying from the engine room.

The entire loss is said to be $10,000, with an insurance of $10,000. There is much regret over the destruction of the plant, this being the only manufacturing interest of the kind in the town.

Daughter's Child.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTYE, N. C., March 6.—George King, Julia King and Lula King, all colored, were committed to jail to-day, charged with the murder of Luja King's infant. The three defendants are father, mother and daughter. The evidence before the coroner's jury was that George King, the grandfather of the infant, killed the child by knocking its head against the side of the house, Lula King, the mother, recently graduated at Scotia Seminary at Concord. It is supposed that the grandfather of the child committed the deed in order to hide his daughter's shame. The verdict of the coroner's jury is that all three are jointly guilty of the crime.

TWO NEW BOOKS.

Several exceptionally interesting matters were transacted at the meeting of the Committee Thursday. A special feature was the large number of fine manuscripts received.

The Committee has accepted from the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, of this city, the manuscript of a new book to be published very shortly. The book is entitled "The Blue Flag; or the Covenanters." It gives an account of the Covenanters were ment in Sectiand, and pictures the suffering of these Sectch Covenanters in the struggle for religious liberty.

There will also shortly be published by the Committee the first collection ever printed of the sermons of the late lamented Moses D. Hoge, of this city, Miss Bessie Hoge, daughter of the distinguished minister, is assisting the Committee in procuring her father's manuscripts. The selection of the Bermons is being made under the supervision of the Committee.
